

Son

*Son is a lovely word that always brings to mind memories of the happiest and very warmest kind!
Thoughts of you bring memories through each passing year, you've been the kind of son who's especially sweet and dear.
If you could read my heart then you would surely see with every day that passes by you mean still more to me.*
